

Fall 2026, Fridays 12:15-1:15 pm, WB Young 327

- Sept 11 Laura Kloepper (Host: T. Rittenhouse)
Associate Professor, Biological Sciences, University of New Hampshire
Listening to the crowd: passive acoustic monitoring as a tool to assess population size and phenology in densely aggregating wildlife species
- Sept 18 No seminar – Teale Lecture Sept 17th
Thomas Dietz - How Can Individuals, Organizations, and Nations Make Better Sustainability Decisions? 4-5pm, Dodd Center for Human Rights, Konover Auditorium
- Sept 25 Erin Peck (Host: B. Lawrence)
Assistant Professor, Graduate School of Oceanography, University of Rhode Island
Insights into centennial-scale salt marsh morphodynamics and blue carbon burial
- Oct 2 Joseph Tumber-Davila (Host: J. Knighton)
Assistant Professor, Department of Environmental Studies, Dartmouth College
Title TBD
- Oct 9 Brendan Rogers (Host: C. Witharana)
Senior Scientist, Woodwell Climate Research Center
Northern wildfires and permafrost thaw: what's changing, why do we care, and what can be done.
- Oct 16 Andrew Bade (Host: J. Vokoun)
CT Department of Energy and Environmental Protection, Fisheries Division
A tale of two basses: history and current status of black bass in Connecticut
- Oct 23 Jamie Sanderlin (Host: C. Rittenhouse)
Research Wildlife Biologist, USDA Forest Service, Rocky Mountain Research Station
Integrating data for cost-efficient, management-relevant species' distribution models
- Nov 6 Graduate Program Roundtable
Topic TBD
- Nov 13 No seminar – Teale Lecture Nov. 12th
Molly Burhans, The Geography of Hope: Unlocking Property for Planetary Stewardship, 4-5pm, Dodd Center for Human Rights, Konover Auditorium
- Nov 20 & 27 No Seminar – Thanksgiving Break
- Dec 4 Sydney Moyo (Host: J. Brandt)
Assistant Professor, Department of Biological Sciences, Louisiana State University
Title TBD

